

Staff Quotes

Our library is a safe, quiet place for our awesome autistic children and all the others at school.

When a child gets lost in words the library becomes the place to find themselves - open, welcoming librarians are the holders of the keys.

Librarian rock (well our does anyway). A library is to reading like a rugby field is to rugby - it can happen elsewhere but it is never quite the same.

School librarians are my favourite. Children's love of reading is nurtured in our school library.
Libraries allow all children access to books.

Libraries are safe, fun nurturing places for children who love books. They are the best use of funds in a school.

A school without a library is like a plane running on two engines - it will get there but at a slow and stuttering pace.

The school library develops a love of reading and starts a passion for books. Thank you.

What does having a school library with a librarian mean for you?

Students' response Bluestone School

Our library is a good place to read books.

It helps you to learn stuff

It's fun

I love the library so much

There are some great senior fiction books. Three of my personal favorites are Robert Muchamore, Alan Gatz and Brian Falkner.

I love reading books in the library at lunchtime.

You can learn anything from a book.

The library is a good place to learn. There are amazing books to read here.

You can learn about animals.

The library is a great quiet place to work and get books out.

Our school library has opened so many worlds to me and given me hours of pleasure.

Libraries are the best because it's peaceful.

Books are like our friends, they give us so much enjoyment.

It helps us to learn stuff.

The library is a good place to read. It is amazing.

Books help us learn new facts and how to write.

There may be many types of books. Old and new. I love the library.

It helps people go in their own world through books.

The books form an image in your mind as you go through the book.

Books are fabulous. There are so many genres and you can find authors you love that you never found before.

It incites me to read.

Books are amazing and you can't live without books.

If you read you might learn something new.

The library helps you to read and makes you enjoy reading.

The library helps you with finding new authors and series.

I like reading books because it helps me to learn more things.

A book can make you smile.

There are lots of books to read.

It helps people with knowledge when it comes to non-fiction instead of being on the Web.

I like the library because it is peaceful.

Reading helps you with your writing because you will learn new words.

I can't afford to buy all the books I want to read. The library helps me read.

Students become librarians and learn to use a database which can lead to skills when you get a job.

It helps with your reading education.

A library is a safe place.

Our library has so many interesting books to read.

I love how I can come and get a book out whenever I feel like it.

I love being transported to other worlds while still being at school.

I like coming every week to take a break and read.

It helps me to do research when working.

Our library is a great place for all students to read and mill.

The books are great and it's a quiet space to read and find books. It's ran by the best. (sic)

It's always good to get your head in a book.

I like to learn about new things like dinosaurs at the library.

Libraries are important so you can learn.

I like to get a book to read at home.

What's the point of a library without a librarian. It just doesn't fit.